

The Game That's Breaking End-of-Life Conversation Barriers

GoWish—The card game that made it easier—and often fun—to start the Conversation about end-of-life wishes—has a new look!

With 20 years of success, and global expansion, we've not changed the content. But we have brightened the deck, to better reflect Coda Alliance's positive approach to the Conversation, where people of all ages can find out, and let loved ones know, what THEY, as individuals, want.

The pioneering game's success in helping people overcome hurdles to choose their own way, opened up the desire for end-of-life conversation -- beyond just Advance Directives. It eased the discomfort around death-related discussions. It paved the way to bring loved ones into the process to better ensure wishes are met.

With multiple nations now seeing the benefits of the Conversation, more and more international organizations signed-up to partner with Coda and it's proven GoWish methodology. But, as Coda's outreach skyrocketed, the need for the cards grew beyond the thousands of GoWish cards Coda had in stock.

That's a good problem to have! Now we can welcome you to our inviting, newly designed cards.
